Thirunavalur

Thirunavalur, holy soil that gave birth to Nayanmar Sundarar.

Thirunavalur Sri Bhaktananeswarar Temple is ageless and devotionally revered by millions of Hindus the world over. It is here, that the planet Sukra (Venus), got relieved from all retrograde effects. People throng this shrine and pray for good health, mental peace, oratorical skill, success in education, marriage and prosperity. Lord Sukra (Venus) himself installed a Shivlinga here to appease Lord Shiva. Sri Bhakta Janeswarar was worshipped by Brahma, Vishnu, Chandikeswara, Sapta Rishis (Seven Sages), Garuda and Nayanmar Sundarar. The Sun in facing the West in this divine land which makes it a rarity. The divinity is witnessed during the month of Panguni (March-April) from 23 to 27, when the Sun rays illuminate the presiding deity. Thirunavalur is highly praised by Sekkizhar in his celebrated epic Periyapuranam. Lord Jambunatheswarar was later mentioned as Thirunavaleesan in Chaste Tamil by Sundarar and he named the place as Thirunavalur.

"Nayanmar Sundarar Nagar" is our expression of reverence to that great soul from this land and our way of glorifying his place of birth.
